

Announcement

First International Conference on Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders

Las Vegas, September 6–9, 1988

This ongoing Conference series will provide an interdisciplinary platform for the discussion of clinical, pathological, genetical, biochemical, laboratory diagnostic procedures and therapeutic strategies. The first Conference will be the largest gathering of scientists studying Alzheimer's disease and related disorders.

Convenors: Khalid Iqbal (USA), Henry Wisniewski (USA), and Bengt Winblad (Sweden)

International Advisory Board: Donald Crapper-McLachlan (Canada), George Glenner (USA), Inge

Grundke-Iqbal (USA), P. Davies (USA), K. Davis (USA) E. Giacobini (USA), B. Winblad (Sweden), Henry Wisniewski (USA), Richard Wurtman (USA), Leonard Heston (USA), D. Bowen (UK), A. Brun (Sweden), K. Beyreuther (FRG), Yasu Ihara (Japan), David Mann (UK), D. Perl (USA), and B. Tomlinson (USA)

Further details from: Medical and Scientific Conference Ltd, The Studio, 12 High Street, Wheat-hampstead, Hertfordshire AL4 8AA, England
Telephone: 058283/4117/8