International Union of Theoretical and Applied Mechanics (IUTAM)

List of Future Meetings:

Whereas there is no restriction of participation in the International Congresses of Applied Mechanics, participation is possible only by invitation in the case of IUTAM Symposia, and the number of participants is held small. Those wishing to participate actively in a IUTAM Symposium are therefore advised to contact the Chairman of the Scientific Committee under the address given below far in advance of the meeting.

IUTAM Symposium on the Generalized Cosserat Continuum and the Continuum Theory of Dislocations with Applications, Stuttgart and Freudenstadt (Germany), Aug. 28 to Sept. 2, 1967.

Chairman of the Scientific Committee: Prof. E. KRÖNER, Bergakademie Clausthal, Clausthal-Zellerfeld (Germany), Adolf Römer-Str. 2A.

2nd IUTAM Symposium on Thin Shells, Copenhagen (Denmark), Sept. 5 to Sept. 9, 1967.

Chairman of the Scientific Committee: Prof. F. NORDSON, Technical University of Denmark, Rigersgade 13, Kobenhavn K (Denmark).

IUTAM Symposium on the Behaviour of Dense Media under High Dynamic Pressures, Paris (France), Sept. 11 to Sept. 15, 1967.

Chairman of the Scientific Committee: Prof. M. ROY, 55, Boulevard Malesherbes, Paris 8e (France).

IUTAM Symposium on Thermoanelasticity, Glasgow (Scotland), 1968, probably in June.

Chairman of the Scientific Committee: Prof. B. BOLEY, Columbia University, New York, N.Y. (USA).

IUTAM Symposium on High-Speed Computing in Fluid Dynamics. USA, in 1968, place and precise date still to be decided.

Inquiries should be addressed to: U.S. National Committee on Theoretical and Applied Mechanics, Dr. F. N. FRENKIEL, Chairman, David Taylor Model Basin, Washington 7, D.C. (USA).

XIIth International Congress of Applied Mechanics, Stanford University, Stanford, Cal. (USA), Aug. 26 to Aug. 31, 1968 (Participation unrestricted).

President of the Congress: Prof. N. J. HOFF, Head, Dept. of Aeronautics and Astronautics, Stanford University, Stanford, Cal. (USA).

Freiburg i. Br. (Germany)
September 5, 1966.
