

Announcement

The Eighth International Congress of Human Genetics, sponsored by the American Society of Human Genetics (ASHG), will be held in Washington, DC, USA, October 6 through 11, 1991. The first formal announcement is scheduled for distribution in 1990. Suggestions for topics, speakers, and special events will be forwarded to the appropriate planning committee. Individuals or organizations who anticipate developing pre- or post-Congress events, as well as those who anticipate a need for working meetings during the week of the Congress, are especially urged to write. Contact John J. Mulvihill, M.D., Secretary-General, ASHG, 9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20814, USA.