The following are the typo errors I have found:

A typo error on page 327 of the published paper:

“Detailed calculations for the variables TheilIndex, IncomeGrowth, and ChangeHP can be found in the appendix”

The correct version should be:

“Detailed calculations for the variables TheilIndex, SpecIndex, and IncomeGrowth can be found in Appendix”

Another typo error on page 334 of the published paper:

“All the dependent and independent variables are logged except for IncomeGrowth to make the distribution of the transformed variables more normal. The IncomeGrowth variable is not logged because it includes negative values.”

The correct version should be:

“All the dependent and independent variables are logged except for ChangeHP to make the distribution of the transformed variables more normal. The ChangeHP variable is not logged because it includes negative values.”
