At page 5 of the published article, second column, three attribute sets are defined, and the figures referred to are wrongly indicated.

Attribute set A, “quantification and measurement of visible plant inclusions” is illustrated in Fig. 4.

Attribute set B, “quantification and measurement of voids” is illustrated in Fig. 5.

Attribute set C, “typological classification of voids” is illustrated in Fig. 6.

At page 7, describing the experimental Grinding, the corresponding illustration is Fig. 2 (instead of Fig. 5 as indicated).

At page 8, describing Charring, the corresponding illustration is Fig. 3 (instead of Fig. 6 as indicated).

At pages 11, 13 and Table 2 “close voids” should be read as “closed voids”.
