The original version of this article unfortunately contained a mistake. The corrected details are given below.

(a) Abstract section: "Tuition prices continued to rise, state funding for higher education declined, and the mean family income declined or stagnated for all but the top 20 percent of families (Goldrick-Rab, Paying the Price: College Costs, Financial Aid, and the Betrayal of the American Dream, University Of Chicago Press, Chicago, London, 2016)" should be changed to "Tuition prices continued to rise, state funding for higher education declined, and the mean family income declined or stagnated for all but the top 20 percent of families (Goldrick-Rab 2016)".

The original article has been corrected.
