1) During the proof check, author had updated the affiliation of co-author “D. Frémondeau” to affiliations 2 and 3. However, the published version still has only affiliation 3, while she should have both “University of Reading” and “UCL London”.

2) During the correction of the proof, author had slightly modified a sentence in the section “Archeaeological context”, and this modification does not appear in the published version. Author’s correction to delete “just below 1000 m a.s.l.” was not carried out.
