In the original publication of the article under the heading “Venezuela: a revisionist challenger in the Americas” in third paragraph, the sentence that reads as “leading to a dramatic rise in food insecurity and the annual inflation rate skyrocketing from 62% in 2014 to a crippling 65% in 2018.” should read as “leading to a dramatic rise in food insecurity and the annual inflation rate skyrocketing from 62% in 2014 to a crippling 65,000% in 2018”

The original article has been corrected.
